Positive Discipline In the Classroom

Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 9-10, 2016 from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Town and Country Resort
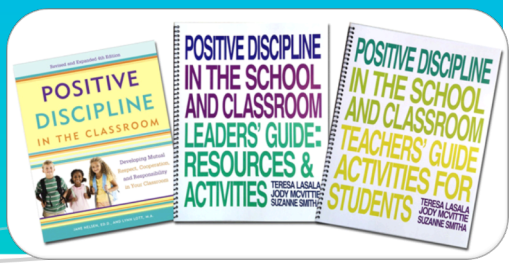
500 Hotel Circle N., San Diego, CA 92108



Become a Certified Positive Discipline Classroom Educator!

This interactive two-day workshop is designed for teachers, administrators, and others who want an effective discipline approach that integrates social and emotional learning while reducing challenging behaviors in classroom and school settings.

Learning Objectives- Participants will:

-Learn practical tools for fostering self-discipline and intrinsic motivation in students and building relationship with and among students, creating a classroom climate that enhances academic learning

-Gain insight into the behaviors that are particularly challenging in classroom settings, and learn effective ways to respond with kindness and firmness at the same time

-Be empowered to use class meetings to teach valuable social and life skills like responsibility, problem solving and empathy, and enhance cooperation and mutual respect in the classroom

Materials Included:

Positive Discipline in the Classroom (PDC) Book

PDC Leaders' Guide with Resources and Activities

PDC Teachers' Guide with Activities for Students

Register at:
www.parentingforabetterworld.org/upcoming-courses

Cost: $425 (includes materials), $375 if registered and paid by July 8, 2016; 3 or more registering together take $40 off registration fee for each 13 Continuing Education Credit Hours: This program is co-sponsored by the North American Society of Adlerian Psychology. NASAP is approved by the APA to offer continuing education for psychologists.

Special Needs: Please contact Julie@parentingforabetterworld.org to request information regarding special needs

Cancellation policy at:
www.positivediscipline.org

Facilitated by
Julie Iraninejad, M.Ed., Certified Positive Discipline Trainer
For additional information, email julie@parentingforabetterworld.org