Empowering People in the Workplace

The Positive Discipline Way

This experiential certification workshop includes strategies to:

- Create a culture of respect and contribution
- Improve employee/staff relationships through applying the wholistic model of Adlerian Psychology
- Participate in experiential activities
- Learn how to facilitate the Team Problem Solving Steps
- Discover how people's private logic affects current beliefs and behaviors
- Use Team Meetings to create connection, cohesion, and solutions
- Practice empowering and encouraging methods of communication that promote a respectful and productive workplace environment
- Grow your leadership skills

"I highly recommend this workshop to everyone who want to know more about the importance of relationships, about the power of the feeling of belonging and significance and about the possibility to change the workplace climate."
