This summer, become a Certified Positive Discipline Parent Educator

Teaching Parenting the Positive Discipline Way (developed by Lynn Lott and Jane Nelsen) is a research-based parent education program that provides a step-by-step approach to starting and leading experientially based parenting groups. This program stands alone or offers significant enhancement to any program and provides experiential activities that reach the heart to inspire deeper understanding and change.

1. Learn researched based, effective tools and techniques for teaching parents how to use discipline that is kind and firm at the same time (non-punitive non-permissive).
2. Learn how to facilitate a parent class from the position of non-expert.
3. Gain practice with experiential exercises that help parents go beyond intellectual understanding to be able to respond in empowering ways that teach children.
4. Learn how to use materials and activities in group settings, parenting classes and individual work with families.

Materials included with the workshop. ($87 Value)

About the Facilitator

Kristin Hovious, combines a career of teaching and serving with her passion for creating mutually respectful environments for families, children, classrooms and schools. In her collaboration with teachers, administrations and families, this Sandy Hook, CT native is a committed educator with over a decade of experience in vocational, adult education, using these democratic tools of connection serving Chicago's Cortiva Institute as both Education Director (2007-2008) and Adjunct Faculty Member (2006-2017.) She used Positive Discipline tools to lead her classroom of up to 54 students, with the majority of her students aged 18-25 recent Chicago Public School graduates. Kristin has been facilitating Positive Discipline workshops for families, schools and learning communities since 2014.
