Become a Certified

Positive Discipline Parent Educator

This interactive workshop is designed for parent educators, teachers, therapists, childcare professionals and others who want an effective discipline approach based on Adlerian Psychology that integrates social and emotional learning while reducing challenging behaviors. Successful participants will earn recognition as a Certified Positive Discipline Parent Educator and will:

- Learn research based, effective tools and techniques for teaching parents how to use discipline that is kind and firm at the same time (non-punitive, non-permissive)
- Learn how to facilitate a parent class from the position of a non-expert
- Gain practice with experiential exercises that help parents go beyond intellectual understanding to be able to respond in empowering ways that teach children
- Learn how to use materials and activities in group settings, parenting classes and individual work with families

13 Continuing Education Credit Hours

The Positive Discipline Association has been approved by NBCC as an Approved Continuing Education Provider. ACEP No. 6723. This program is co-sponsored by the North American Society of Adlerian Psychology (NASAP).

Cathy is a Certified Positive Discipline Trainer in both parenting and classroom education and has been offering school training and facilitating Positive Discipline workshops for over 8 years. She also offers Positive Discipline coaching to families and educators who are striving to incorporate the philosophy into their lives. She is the owner of Middle Ground Parenting based in San Jose, CA and has additional expertise in early childhood education and working with parent participation schools. She is the mother of 2 and her best teachers have been her now 14 and 17 year old daughters.
