Morning Session

Perspective, Adaptation, and Struggle. Positive Discipline with Children with Special Needs.

Intended audience: Educators, Psychologists, & aligned professions

Steven Foster, LCSW

This highly interactive session will examine three key issues in using Positive Discipline with children with special needs. And yes, Positive Discipline does work with these children.

Building Cooperation in the Family

Intended audience: Parents, Psychologists, Counselors, & aligned professions

Carol Does & Kelly Pfeiffer

In this experiential session, participants will analyze competition and cooperation through role play and large and small group discussions. Participants will gain cooperative ideas that can be implemented into weekly routines and ideas that will foster stronger, more cooperative family and sibling relationships. Practical real life examples will be included.

Morning Session

Take Me as I Am, Parenting Neurodiverse Children

Intended audience: Parents, Psychologists, & aligned professions

Natasha Nelson

Join an Autistic mom in a session where we discuss the difference in goal oriented misbehavior and the sensory/social needs of a neurodiverse child. We think differently, and we act differently but we still want a sense of belonging and significance.

Actions Speak Louder Than Words

Intended audience: Parents & Parent Educators

Manal Rostom

Follow Through is an essential Positive Discipline parenting tool. We will explore how Follow Through as well as other Positive Discipline tools like Act Without Words and Limit Setting help to develop a kind and firm parenting style.

Afternoon Session

Foundations of Whole School Culture and Climate in Partnership with SEL & Positive Discipline

Intended audience: Teachers, School Administrators, & aligned professions

Teresa LaSala & Kathleen McClay

Whole school implementation of Positive Discipline in the School and Classroom develops social emotional learning while simultaneously enhancing and improving school culture and climate. Participants will be introduced to a systematic school improvement process and engage in activities for building a Positive Discipline School Climate Team that is effective and sustainable.

Reconnecting: Positive Discipline Skills to Support Social and Emotional Development in Young Children Impacted by COVID-19

Intended audience: Parents, Teachers, Psychologists, & aligned professions

Cheryl Erwin, LMFT

For many young children, their entire life has taken place during the COVID-19 pandemic and many have not had the opportunity to develop vital social and emotional skills. This presentation will help teachers and parents recognize these impacts and give children what they need to thrive.

Afternoon Session

The Art of Facilitating Positive Discipline: How to Turn Mistakes into Opportunities

Intended audience: Trainers & Positive Discipline Educators

Nadine Gaudin & Solenne Roland Riché

The Art of Facilitating Positive Discipline is a training co-created by Nadine Gaudin and Jane Nelsen. In this conference session, participants will learn how to turn mistakes into opportunities and increase their courage to be imperfect. There will be a focus on new activities from this new training.

Keeping the Joy in Relationships

Intended audience: Couples, Parents, Psychologists, & aligned professions

Mary Nelsen Tamborski, LMFT

Participants will learn Keeping the Joy in Relationships tools to invite better communication and a deeper connection with their partners. Positive Discipline principles to improve relationships will be explored. The Couple's Dialogue Process, will help with understanding why it is so difficult to really listen, and what to do about it. Participants will learn how to listen beyond words, which helps couples understand what their partner really "means" and "needs".
