PDA Mission

To create a more peaceful world by teaching Adlerian social and emotional life skills for respectful relationships.

About the Conference

The in-person Positive Discipline Conference takes place Friday, July 28, 2023 for educators, clinicians, parents, workplace leaders, and others from all over the world. This event is open to the public and is promoted to members from over 90 countries. Participants learn tools for creating mutually respectful relationships in the home, school, workplace, and the community.

Topics range from learning alternatives to punishments and rewards, developing cooperative teams, understanding the importance of social-emotional life skills, and gaining insight and perspective through experiential learning that encourages self-discipline, responsibility, cooperation, and problem-solving skills.

About Think Tank

Think Tank takes place Saturday and Sunday, July 29-30, 2023. It offers professional development for PDA member practitioners to learn new activities, hone their facilitation skills, network, and deepen their understanding of Adlerian Psychology upon which Positive Discipline is based.

Information for Prospective Sponsors

You are invited to be part of the 2023 Positive Discipline events by sponsoring this once-a-year gathering. As society continues to face traditional and new parenting challenges, the theory of Alfred Adler and Rudolf Dreikurs as well as the contributions of Jane Nelsen and Lynn Lott (Founders of Positive Discipline) have become more relevant than ever. The Association's primary goal is to provide a network of support for professionals, educators, parents, clinicians, and everyone interested in developing Positive Discipline tools for the home, school, and workplace as well as for coaching, consulting, and counseling practices.

Conference and Think Tank offer opportunities for your organization to have increased exposure and/or to advertise your private practice, coaching or consulting services, or share information about a book you recently published or will be publishing.
