This was a practice-changing experience... I feel so full and so ready for this year; I find myself hoping I have some of those students in my classes again, to build and repair relationships, and to be the teacher they've needed me to be.

9th-12th Grade Math Teacher
North Side College Prep High School, Chicago.

This online, interactive workshop is designed for educators, counselors, school staff and administrators who want an effective discipline approach that integrates social and emotional learning while reducing challenging student behaviors. Attendees will earn recognition as a Certified Positive Discipline Classroom Educators and will learn to:

- Develop a large teaching toolbox of kind and firm discipline approaches.
- Establish explicit classroom structures and procedures.
- Create an equitable classroom community based on mutual respect.
- Understand the motivation behind students' misbehavior and how to use encouragement to motivate positive change.
- Facilitate effective class meetings teaching social skills and problem solving.
- Learn Positive Discipline/Adlerian Psychology for use in the classroom and school community.

Kristin Hovious, MSPsy (she/her/hers) is an educator with over fifteen years of experience in vocational, adult education. In 2017, Hovious founded SEL Chicago to support adults in the important, urgent work of creating mutually respectful, dignity centered environments with intention. In her collaboration with educators, schools and families, Kristin aligns the work of authoritative leadership supported by neuroscience and culturally responsive practices that center dignity for all with the goal of creating trauma informed, healing centered, equitable learning environments. Hovious is the author of Our Brain Book, a rhyming children's book about self- and co-regulation. She lives in Chicago with her family and is currently working on her Masters in Social Work.

Workshop Registration Policy: A full refund (minus a $35 processing fee) will be given when the request for a refund is made up to 30 days prior to the first day of a workshop. Refunds are not available for cancellations less than 30 days before a workshop. Paid registrants can transfer to another workshop within one year of original workshop at no additional cost. Refunds are not available after a transfer is made or if you do not provide advanced notice that you will not be attending the workshop. In the event of cancellation, participants will be notified by email. Please contact Kristin Hovious to request information regarding special needs accommodations at kristin.hovious@selchicago.com
